

123 Blank Hundred Square

The top row and the tens column are filled to start you off, fill in every other number from 1 to 100. A brilliant way to fix the number system in place.

Fill in the missing numbers to complete the hundred square.

| | | | | | | | | | |
|---|---|---|---|---|---|---|---|---|-----|
| 1 | 2 | 3 | 4 | 5 | 6 | 7 | 8 | 9 | 10 |
| | | | | | | | | | 20 |
| | | | | | | | | | 30 |
| | | | | | | | | | 40 |
| | | | | | | | | | 50 |
| | | | | | | | | | 60 |
| | | | | | | | | | 70 |
| | | | | | | | | | 80 |
| | | | | | | | | | 90 |
| | | | | | | | | | 100 |

Name: _____ Count along each row, and ten more as you go down each column.